Good Morning Sam:

I hate to do this, but would it be possible to reschedule this meeting to later next week? Perhaps next Thursday?

Something critical has come up here on a project with the MTO and it requires our staff to be dispatched for a few consecutive days. That leaves us without Giovanni and Khaled to meet with you.

Please let me know.

Regards,

Brian

Thanks Sam. I am not able to make it on Thursday, but two of our engineering staff were going to me making their field visit that evening. I'm going to request that they contact you to coordinate and time and location to meet and they can take a ride-along with your patrolman as well as discuss things with you.

Thanks again for your assistance.

Hi Brian,

Has to our conversation Thursday I was hoping to make it July 23rd has my patrolman is off Wednesday. I think it would be good to have him there because he is on that road every day and has been doing it for quite some time.

Thanks Sam

Sam, Brian is the consultant that will be undertaking the safety review of the Redhill expressway and I asked him to make sure that he touches base with you as part of their review. His company is being retained by the Traffic gang to do the study and your (and your staffs insight) would be great input into the review as you are often the first responders and almost always at the scene of incidents.

Just wanted to put the two of you in touch.....thanks.
